

Outer Darkness Paranormal (ODP) - Brochure

Uncovering the Unseen Since 2013

Founded on a love for the unknown, Outer Darkness Paranormal (ODP) began as a tight-knit group of friends exploring ghostly encounters. Over the years, we evolved into a skilled, professional paranormal investigation team, blending discipline, respect, and curiosity to uncover mysteries others fear to explore. Today, our team continues the search, driven by one mission: to shed light on the shadows and bring evidence of the unexplained to the world.

Our Team

Jefferson - The Founder & Leader

A former military member, Jefferson brings experience, strategy, and unwavering passion for ghost hunting. After years of service, he traded his combat gear for ghost-hunting equipment, guiding ODP with precision and respect in every investigation. From haunted houses to abandoned sites, Jefferson leads us into the unknown.

Sean - The Scholar of Shadows

With degrees in Anthropology, Folklore, and Film, Sean combines his sharp wit and academic expertise to add depth to each case. Formerly an Air Force cop, he's as fearless in dark corridors as he is keen on discovering the stories behind each haunting.

Nate - The Gadget Guru

Our tech genius and innovator, Nate, is constantly pushing the boundaries of ghost-hunting tools. Armed with a soldering iron and a mind full of ideas, Nate's custom-built devices — from EMF meters to spirit boxes — are as quirky as they are revolutionary.

Our Approach

At ODP, we take each investigation seriously, with a commitment to professionalism and respect for our clients' spaces. Unlike sensationalized TV shows, our approach is grounded in patience, discipline, and scientific methodology. We rely on tech-driven evidence — audio, video, and photographs — avoiding tools like Ouija boards or séances that may compromise objectivity.
